

God's Yes Was Louder Than My No

Introduction

This book was written by Dr. William H. Myers, my academic advisor for all of my religious degrees. He says it is written: For all those who, in spite of liminality, have struggled, are struggling, and will struggle with self, and God to hear and answer the call of God.”

Let's grapple with a few questions in our quest to discover and try to unravel this question in your heart about sensing something from God for your life.

1. What Is A Call?
2. What Does It Mean To Be Called?
3. If This Call Comes Where Do You Go?

Dr. Myers research suggests a process that helps bring an understanding to the idea of being called to ministry.

1. Early Religious Exposure
2. The Call Experience
3. The Struggle
4. The Search
5. The Sanction
6. The Surrender
